In keeping with a custom as general order giving Col. Eigan comold as journalism and in fairnes to mand of all the minita forces at his the patrons of the paper, its future policy is briefly outlined:

The CHAMPION will be independent in politics, dealing tairly and tearless ly with all questions of public interest. Its pages will be devoted to all that can aid in the development of our resources; the advancement of trade and the progress of education.

It will record the facts and results States troops have signally fuled to of the current events of the day.

Special attention will be given to Territorial news in noting the progress of our neighbors with a spirit of fairness and impartiality to all,

These cert ficates will of course be negotiable and redeemable at any time by the U. S. Treasury in bullion at its market price, thus the government and the depositors will eith either be gainers or losers, according to the fluctuations of the silver market. The plan is a plausible one, but it will present many difficulties in commercial transactions, as the silver certificates will not always represent their face value. It will require some consider ation before the people will accept this kind of money as a substitute for the "dollars of our daddies."

The them, following answer comes from the Tembsione Record-Entaph; "He is a resident of New Jersey and the president and a large owner of some mines in Simora, and was instrumental in swindling the Mexican government out of several thousands of dollars a short time ago. He has teen in this cur about twenty-four hours on two or three different occasions while on his way to and from Sonora. New Brother Fay you have his history as far as we know it."

This is a thoroughly satisfactory answer to the question.

Holman's committee of investigation on Indian Affairs certainly failed in their duty when they made a flying trip through Arizona rnd neglected to visit the San Carlos agency. The murdering Apaches will now be investigated with something more formidable than the "great objector" and his long-winded reports.

THE red devils won't have quite so much of a picnic as they have lately enjoyed, when the ranchers and fromtiersmen are allowed to get after them

THE U. S. Army in Southern Ari zona is now presumably safe as they will probably be protected from the Indians by the citizens.
